

There Is A Place of Quiet Rest

Isaiah 32:1-2

Some places are extra special... yet it requires slowing down and being thoughtful and faithful to appreciate them.

Isaiah teaches us that righteousness and justice become a shelter and a shade to us. Can we recognize the quiet places He provides?

There are places which provide a quiet place with God. (Mark 1:35)

There are places where we can mourn a loss and reflect on the path ahead. (Matthew 14:23)

There are places where our souls can be renewed and restored. (Matthew 11:28-30)

But will I surrender my quiet place to cram another activity into my hectic schedule? Finding the shelter and the shade takes an intentional move on my part.
