

How Nations Are Strengthened

“Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord, The people whom He has chosen for His own inheritance.” (Ps. 33:12)

(This was spoken in the context of ancient Israel in the united kingdom when the nation was approaching its zenith of power and influence.”

Our nation cannot redefine family without it having a significant negative impact on this nation at every level. The answer to our woes cannot be found in more legislation and taxes; rather only in the renewal of Biblical principles.

1– Strong Families Instill The Ethical Backbone for a Nation.

2– Strong Families Ensure A Spiritual Based Education for Their Kids

3– Strong Families Teach a Solid Work Ethic for Each Generation.

The majority thinks answers are really hard to come by, when in actuality they are between the front and back cover of this leather-bound Book.
