

On The Count of Three Judges 7:1-21

Really, who gets the credit for the great works of God?

V.2 is key to this passage: "... in order that Israel may not boast against Me."

Without doubt, the real hero of the Judges is God.

1– OK, do the math... 30,000 vs. 120,000

2– Get a drink... watchful or reckless?

3– Divide up... arm yourselves!

4– Hold your position... God's got this!

Still, true to the pattern of this era, after a mighty deliverance, and 40 years of calm, Israel turn away again. Don't overlook this key reality... every generation has to decide all over again what it is going to do with God.
