

HEARING AND HEEDING James 1:19-27

It takes so much more than being a good Bible reader and a good Bible listener to be a good Bible BELIEVER!

The Old Testament concept of “hearing” meant to heed whatever God said.

This passage enjoins us all to get our inner life and our outer person on the same page.

The humble reception of the implanted Word has saving power. (v.24)

The habit of hearing only can be self-deceptive. (v.22-24)

The blessings which await the “doer” of the Word. (v.25)

The religion which is pure and acceptable to God. (v.26-27)

The blessing is in the “doing”. (v.25)
