

The Good Ones and The Others

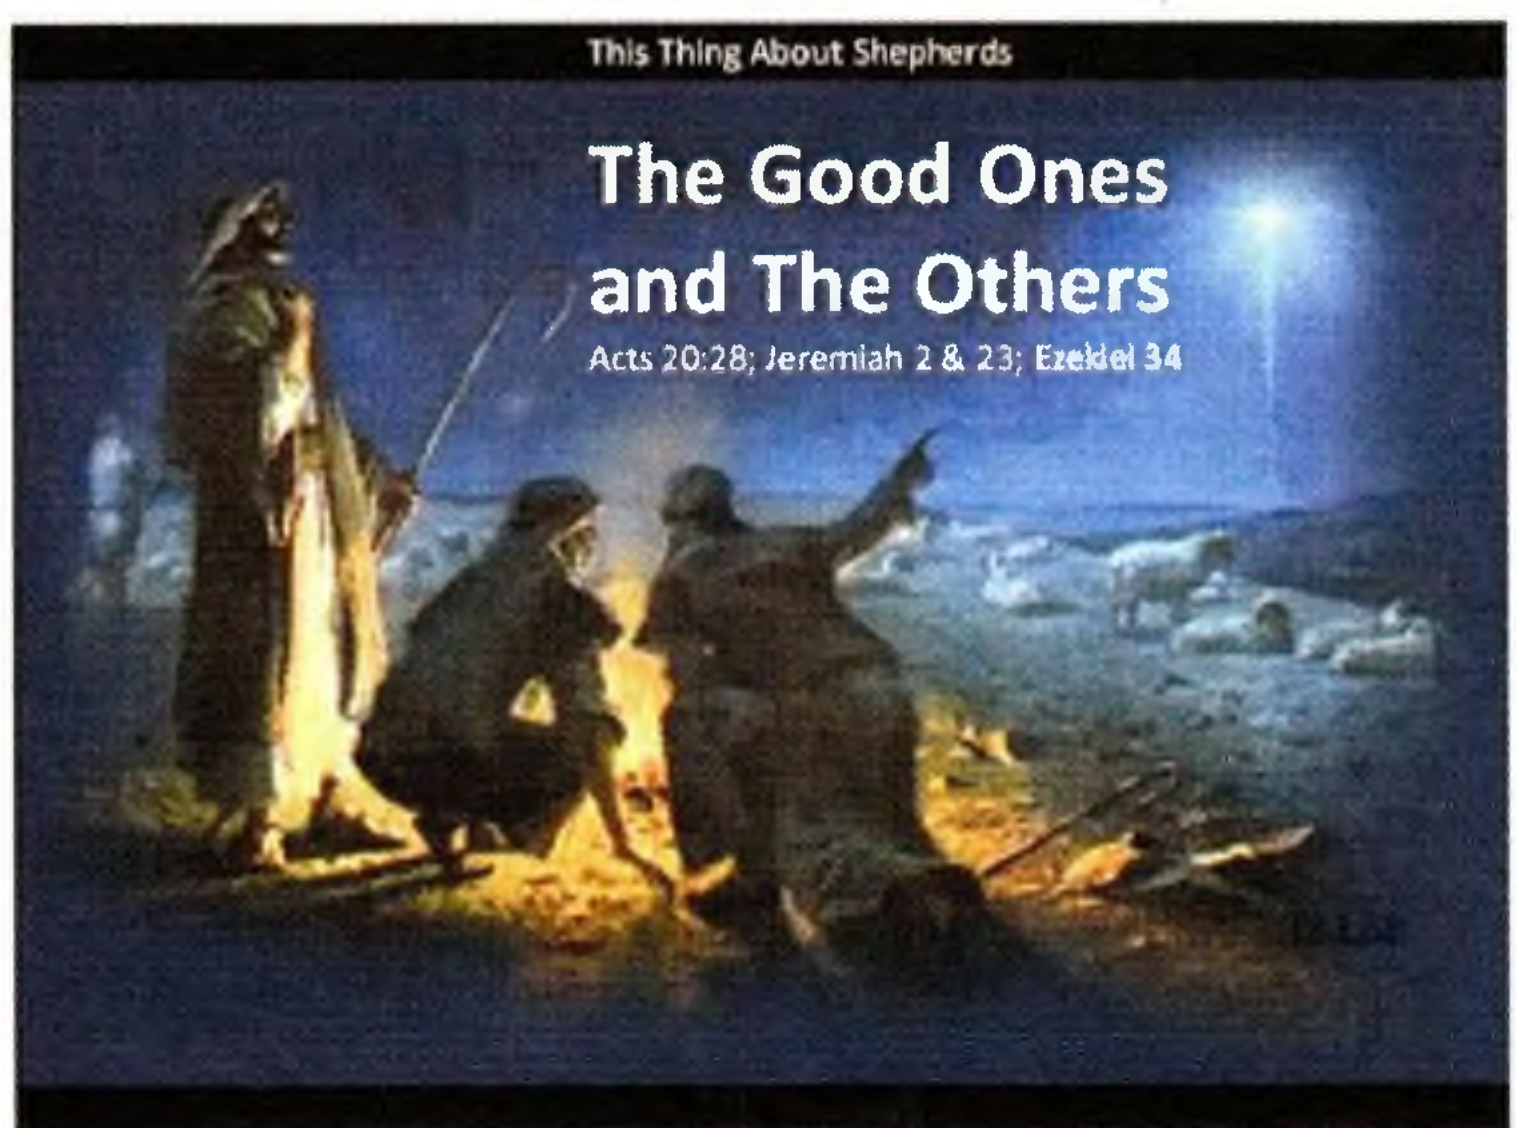

Acts 20:28; Jeremiah 23; Ezekiel 34

The most apt description of the motif for soul-care is that of shepherding. The value of Acts 20:28... Reveals FOUR primary tasks of shepherds:

- 1– Protect or guard...
- 2– Oversee—Look over
- 3– Shepherd—feed AND...
- 4—Shepherd—Lead

Both Jeremiah and Ezekiel describe what happens when shepherds are neglectful:

- Without constant attention, they are scattered and lost.*
- Without pasture, they are undernourished.*
- Without protection, they are vulnerable.*
- Without care, they become sick and broken.*

When shepherds are where they need to be and doing what they need to do, a connection with Christ will occur. And God's purposes are accomplished.
