

The Fourth Revelation Beatitude

Revelation 19:6-9

What is a beatitude? Beatitudes are pronouncements of affirmation and promised reward when one meets the condition of the blessing.

These Revelation beatitudes provide uplifting power and strength for any believer burdened down with life's trials and threats. In short, these are statements of hope.

Revelation's Beatitudes

This FOURTH beatitude comes as the scene of God's judgment announcements are concluding. Only when God's just is done can there be endless rejoicing...

The hope from the Book of Revelation is that God's plan looks beyond death and funerals to the great wedding feast.

1- The strong implication of "those invited" refers to believers who have accepted His call.

2- God wants Christians to have assurance in His promises. "These are the TRUE words of God."

3- Possessing this promise changes one's whole outlook on the drama of life.

Just think of the day when we will be a part of the thunderous praise for our God!
