

Jonah 4:4,9-11; Matthew 19:20-22; Luke 15:31-32; Philemon 1:17-18

Why do you suppose so many important Bible accounts do not record the outcome of the situation?

- Is the outcome just assumed by the author to be known by the reader?
- Is it possible the outcome is not disclosed to encourage the reader to give more thought to the real issue at stake and make more responsible personal choices?

1– JONAH— will I _____ with God’s judgment OR will I _____ that it is not the way I think it should be?

2– RICH YOUNG RULER— will I _____ my bad choices OR will my _____ keep me from turning back?

3– PRODIGAL’S OLDER BROTHER— do I have the same kind of _____ the Father has for _____ people OR is it all about ___?

4– PHILEMON— will I permit Sunday’s _____ to spill over to Monday’s _____ OR is my faith only for the _____ _____?

YOU must now write “the rest of the story!”
